

1. What is a Class Coordinator?

Class Coordinators act as ambassadors for their graduating class on a going forward basis. They are representatives of their student body for their grade. These graduates are individuals who continue to be enthusiastic about the school and appreciate the importance of maintaining close ties with the St. George's community.

2. What are the responsibilities of a Class Coordinator?

Class Coordinators act as a liaison between their grade and the school. They assist with class reunions, other alumni events and help verify and maintain their classmate's current contact information.

3. What is the time commitment?

The time commitment is quite nominal since there is more than one Class Coordinator per grade. Two to four people work together in each grade making it a great way to reconnect with your classmates and mitigates any large work burden.

4. How do I become a Class Coordinator?

If you are interested in becoming a Class Coordinator for your graduating year, please contact alumni@stgeorges.qc.ca.

5. What do I do if I can no longer act as a Class Coordinator?

We appreciate your commitment to the school and your classmates. If you are unable to continue in your role as Class Coordinator, please contact us at alumni@stgeorges.qc.ca.
